The staff would like to thank The Denisionian, News Services, Andy Blumenfeld, and Steve Tenney for photographs; Charles Perdue for the cover; and Mary Spencer, Beth Goodwin and Laurie Bergmann for help above and beyond the call of friendship.

Also Thanks To . . .

Mike McKelley for picking up the tab and for the tacos with sour cream.

"Hog with an 'e'" for typing.

Charley, Eric, and Jeff for collation.

Steph for the 4 A.M. Strawberry Daquiries.

Olaf The Ugly for not breaking again.

Brenda, even though she cut her hair. Twice.

Charlie for instilling in me an unabiding faith in what I could get done next week.

Lisa and John for doing most of the things I told them to.

Mom and Dad for having me.

Caroline for her choice of birthdays and Marty for the rug burns.

Dave for ego inflation in times of crisis.

Mark for improving his aim.

Chief Tom Wilson and the city of Pataskala for busting Charley.

And Charley for not being a rat-bag sort of roommate.

And especially to those few who made so many tolerable.

Mark Buehler, Editor
